

CCRW President's Message

By the time you read this, Thanksgiving will be past and we will be headlong into the Christmas season. I love Christmas, but doesn't it seem to be more rushed than usual? I was determined to not put up lights on the outside of my house until after Thanksgiving, but alas, there they were, two days before! Some houses in my neighborhood had lights up for a couple of weeks before me. Sometimes it seems like I am running full speed just to keep up!

Which brings me to another thought. This is my last message as President of CCRW. It has been an honor and pleasure to serve. It has also, at times, been a challenge, and time consuming, but all in all a very interesting and educational experience that I wouldn't have missed for the world!

Where did the time go?

Over the past two years CCRW has presented a broad range of speakers at our monthly lunches, had fun mixers, great fund raisers, donated books and Constitutions to schools and libraries, contributed financially to local Republican Candidates, and became a presence on social media. Our successes, of course, are due to the dedication of all the ladies that serve on the board of CCRW. They have all given abundantly of their time, talent, energy, and finances to insure everything went smoothly. Their support has been invaluable.

To all the members, associate members, old friends and new, I thank you for your participation in CCRW. I hope to see everyone at our Christmas luncheon on December 7th. (See the invitation page 3). Bring friends, it is going to be fun! No politics at this event, just friends enjoying each other's company. Oh, and lots of door prizes too!

May your Christmas be blessed and may health, happiness and prosperity be yours in the New Year.

Merry Christmas!

Lillian Murphy, CCRW President

If not, please feel free to request to be added to our group page. Please note that we only allow posts that are of the non-opinion nature and don’t demean others. Further, this isn’t a business networking group so please don’t push out posts that are for your specific business unless it is of the candidate nature. We are happy to help promote, by posting on our FB page, your Republican local events.

Please share our Facebook page and events with your friends by sharing it to your personal profile and invite your friends to our monthly CCRW meetings.

CCRW Volunteer Hours –Report Hours

1. Go to <http://www.clearcreekrw.org/>
2. On the top menu bar, click Membership
3. On the dropdown menu, click on campaign volunteer hours
4. Scroll down to "Hey! Don't forget your hours"
5. Enter name, e-mail, and hours in spaces designated.
6. click on submit.

If you are looking for any activities that count as hours, read the guidelines you scrolled past to reach report spaces.

Remember that the time spent traveling to the monthly meeting counts, the meeting itself does not count.

I am looking forward to seeing your entries.

Welcome back members! It is never too early to start thinking about next year's membership. We will have the 2019 Membership Applications at the next meeting or save time and paper and fill one out on our website ; www.clearcreekrw.org. We do need a form filled out by every Member and Associate Member, even if your information remains the same. We have been laxed about it in the past, but it helps the club stay in compliant with the Texas Ethics Commission. We appreciate your understanding.
