CCRW President's February Message 2018

Greetings CCRW members,

First I would like to say a special thank you to Kathie Nenninger for putting together our candidate review and to Paula Smith for keeping everyone on track. I think it was a very positive meeting. It was so encouraging to see so many in attendance. Getting to know the candidates and understanding what they stand for will go a long way to electing the best person for the job. I would encourage you to attend as many candidate forums and debates as possible.

Loretta Roberts, Kari Long, Melissa Johnson and I returned from Georgetown, Texas for the TFRW Leadership Day. We have returned full of fresh ideas and new strategies to do our part to help Keep Texas Red! CCRW will be offering interesting and informative meetings and events to help us all fight the good fight.

These are exciting and trying times, but I for one expect the Republicans to prevail. Just look at what our President has accomplished in one short year: the stock market is soaring, unemployment is the lowest in decades, illegal border crossings are down, ISIS is on the run and we have tax reform, to mention just a few! Turn the rotten main stream media off and concentrate on the positive. The future looks bright ahead!

Please join us for our next event on the evening of February 2nd. This is our regular meeting day, but NOT our regular lunch event. Instead we will be holding our 2018 fundraiser, Food For Thought, at the Civic Center. Join our 30 plus chefs for an evening of delicious food and drink while you chat with local elected officials, candidates and other CCRW members in a casual, friendly atmosphere. The flyer in this newsletter gives you details and how to get your tickets.

Lillian Murphy
President, CCRW

Chaplain's Message-Mary Blackwell

Commandments-Do not worship any other gods besides me. That is clear. 2 John 1:9-11 states: If you wander beyond the teaching of Christ, you will not have fellowship with God... We put a chasm between ourselves and God.

Compromise-A settlement of differences by mutual concessions.

God does not compromise. He tells us that we cannot serve two gods; it is either Him or Satan. He made it the first of the 10
